CMF releases its Annual Regional Banking Statistics Report

- It is the third version of such Report, which aims to provide an overview of banking activity at a regional level with a focus on supply and demand of products and services.

January 27, 2021 – The Financial Market Commission (CMF) released today the third version of its Annual Regional Banking Statistics Report. The 2020 Report aims to provide an overview of banking activity at a regional level from a supply-and-demand approach to banking products and services.

The compiled statistics focus on savings and credit products as well as on the infrastructure related to banking activity in each geographic area. This contributes to the analysis of local economies and provides elements to develop banking penetration and financial inclusion policies.

The 2020 Annual Regional Banking Statistics Report is available to interested parties on the CMF website.
