

CMF to file charges against three entities for alleged fraud in mortgage loan management

- These entities allegedly offer advisory services to apply to mortgage loans granted by CMF-supervised institutions and request advance payments for advice and operations that never materialize.

May 26, 2026 — The Financial Market Commission (CMF) alerts users and the public regarding scams involving alleged advisory services and management to obtain mortgage loans.

According to complaints received and information gathered by the CMF's Investigation Unit, these entities allegedly offer advisory services to apply for mortgage loans at institutions supervised by the Commission. They request advance payments from applicants, yet the advice and operations never materialize nor are said amounts refunded.

These entities claim to be supervised by the CMF but are neither registered before nor authorized by it to operate. Therefore, the CMF filed complaints before the Public Prosecutor's Office for alleged fraud against any parties responsible for the following:

1. Wolv Brokers, or Wolv Inmobiliaria. It operates through the wolvbroker dot cl website.
2. Asesoría Estratégica Inmobiliaria SPA.
3. MAX Millón SPA.

The Commission also reminds the public about the Fraud Alerts Page for investors, policyholders, and banking customers available on its website. Interested parties can verify here whether an entity or person offering financial products or services is supervised by the CMF; check alerts issued by the CMF and other foreign regulators on unregulated entities or activities; and other important advice for the protection of investors, policyholders, and financial clients.
