

Press RELEASE

Mr. Kevin Cowan, Commissioner of the CMF, will take part in the international annual seminar organized by the G20 in Argentina

September 24th, 2018.- With the purpose to keep strengthening the international presence of the Commission for the Financial Market (CMF for its initials in Spanish), the Commissioner Kevin Cowan will take part between September 24th and 26th in the "International Insurance Forum, 2018, Argentina", organized by the countries which make up the group named G20, currently presided over by Argentina.

Taking into consideration the significance of the insurance industry in the development and stability of the financial system, Commissioner Cowan will take part as a speaker in the panel named "Building of resilient economies", which will have other distinguished speakers from foreign regulatory bodies.

The forum will also address subjects related to sustainable long-term investment in market infrastructure; digital revolution, and the role of the reinsurance industry at a global level.