Regulatory developments in Chile regarding the association between LAN and TAM

Santiago, Chile. March 18th 2011. - LAN Airlines S.A. (LAN) (NYSE: LFL/IPSA: LAN) announced that yesterday, March 17th, 2011, the Chilean Tribunal de Defensa de la Libre Competencia (TDLC), Chile's antitrust court, on a majority vote (three votes against two), confirmed its decision of January 28th 2011 regarding the combination between Lan Airlines S.A. ("LAN") and TAM S.A. ("TAM") in terms that the transaction should be submitted to the ordinary consultation proceeding before the antitrust court. As a consequence, the TDLC declined to analyze the out-of-court agreement reached between LAN and the Fiscalía Nacional Económica (FNE) in January this year.

In order to prevent further delay to the proposed transaction and to continue the progress of the consultation proceeding, LAN will actively participate in such proceeding and will provide to the TDLC any information it may require in connection with the proceeding, with the expectation that the process may conclude as promptly as possible. LAN expects the consultation proceeding to conclude around the end of the second quarter of this year.

However, as of today, it is not possible to assure with any reasonable degree of certainty how long the process will take or when the approval, if granted, will be given. As anticipated last January, when the TDLC decided to submit the proposed transaction between LAN and TAM to a consultation process, LAN believes the required process will inevitably delay the implementation of the transaction. At this stage, if approved by the TDLC, LAN believes that the transaction would not take place earlier than the fourth quarter of 2011.

425 1 v215629_425.htm

Filed by Lan Airlines S.A. pursuant to Rule 425 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Subject of the offer: TAM S.A.
(Commission File No.: 1-32826)

Below is an e-mail sent to the employees of LAN on March 18, 2011.

With the objective of maintaining you informed of the process of the LAN and TAM transaction, we inform you that yesterday in the Tribunal de Defensa de La Libre Competencia (TDLC), the Chilean anti-trust court, rejected, by a divided tally of 3 to 2, the motion to reconsider presented by the Fiscalía Nacional Económica (FNE), LAN and TAM, thus ratifying the initial consultation proceeding initiated by the Corporación Nacional de Consumidores y Usuarios de Chile this past January.

Consequently, the TDLC declined to analyze the out-of-court agreement reached between LAN and the Fiscalía Nacional Económica (FNE) in January of this year.

After this decision, LAN issued this Friday afternoon a Press Release where it stated that “in order to prevent further delay to the proposed transaction and to continue the progress of the consultation proceeding, LAN will actively participate in such proceeding and will provide to the TDLC any information it may require in connection with the proceeding, with the expectation that the process may conclude as promptly as possible. LAN expects the consultation proceeding to conclude around the end of the second quarter of this year.”

However, we believe that as of this date it is not possible to anticipate with any reasonable degree of certainty the duration of this process, but it is probable that the satisfactory conclusion of this proceeding will delay the implementation of the transaction, “which, once approved, we estimate will not occur before the fourth quarter of 2011.”

In case you want to read the complete press release which has been issued, we invite you to go to www.lan.com or to www.latamairlines.com.

In any case, we remind you may send us your questions internally to [internal e-mail address].
