On the CMF website, it is possible to verify whether a company or individual offering financial products or services is supervised, and to review previously issued alerts.

May 6, 2026.- The Financial Market Commission (CMF) informs investors and the general public that the following entities are not registered or authorized to provide services subject to the supervision of the CMF.

- Soluciones FX, operating on the website <https://solucionesfx.com/>
- FLOW MARKETS, operating on the website <https://flowmarkets.net/>
- GATE.IO, Gate Global UAB, Hippo Financial Services Limited, Hippo Capital Co. Additionally, investors are recommended that, before making an investment, they always seek more information regarding the products and companies they are considering investing with, by performing the following actions:

- i) consult the CMF website to confirm whether the respective company is registered in Chile and which individuals are responsible for its management; and,
- ii) use common internet search engines to identify the existence of complaints or negative comments regarding the entity, conducting searches that include the name of the company, the names of the directors, and the product(s) being considered for investment.

Finally, investors are urged to be cautious if they are contacted without solicitation, if they are pressured to invest quickly, or if they are promised high returns that seem too attractive to be real.
