CMF applies sanction for acquisition of shares within the ban timeframe set forth in Article 16 of the Securities Market Act

November 16, 2026 — The Board of the Financial Market Commission (CMF) sanctioned Juan Enrique Concha Ureta with a UF 100 fine for breaching Article 16, Number 5 of the Securities Market Act.

Per Resolution No. 12,263, the sanctioned party acquired 698,557 Banco de Chile shares within the ban timeframe set forth in Law No. 18,045. Due to his second-degree relationship with a senior executive of that issuer, he was subject to the ban on trading the issuer's securities within the thirty days prior to the release of its financial statements.
