CMF to file charges for alleged extortion and usury against three applications offering loans

They can be downloaded from Google Play and other websites.

November 18, 2026 — The Financial Market Commission (CMF) alerts users and the public about three applications offering loans that are not supervised by the CMF. They employ extortion techniques and charge predatory amounts when collecting these loans.

The CMF also filed a criminal complaint before the Public Prosecutor's Office against any parties responsible for the following apps, which are available for download through Google Play and other websites:

1. "APP BUENO UHCHA"
2. "APP KOOPLATA"
3. "APP RIQUEZA PLUS – PRÉSTAMOS FÁCILES"

The CMF also reminds the public about the Citizen Alerts Page for investors, policyholders, and banking customers available on its website. Interested parties can verify here whether an entity or person offering financial products or services is supervised by the CMF; check alerts issued by the CMF and other foreign regulators on unregulated entities or activities; and other important advice for the protection of investors, policyholders, and financial clients.
